

The Power of Words

Proverbs are for everyone: the simple, young, and _____ . Solomon warns against the enticement of evil, rejecting _____ , adultery, foolishness, etc.

1. The Foolish Tongue:

- a. Liar, mocker, _____ , lack of self-control, divisive, selfish, and destructive. –Prov 12:22, 17:5, 16:28, 12:16
- b. Luke 6:45. What are we feeding our _____ ?

2. The Wise Tongue:

- a. Self-control, unity and peace, protects from _____ . –Prov 10:19; 12:28, 15:1; 29:11
- b. Not only about being quiet, God is a communicator and He made us to _____ .

3. The Beneficial Tongue:

- a. Encouraging, life-giving, nourishing, appropriate, says the _____ . –Prov 10:21; 15:4, 23; 27:6
- b. _____ for humility, boldness, and opportunities to talk with believers and non-believers.

Don't play the part of the fool. Use your words to bring _____ and _____ to those around you.